WORLD COUNCIL OPENS SESSION

dinavian delegates informally suggested that an amendment be adopted preventing delegates from sitting in the future unless they are bona fide residents of the countries they represent. The small Central American states opposed this suggestion. Most of them plan to be represented at future sessions by proxies on account of the heavy expense of sending and maintaining delegates in Geneva. It was not regarded as likely, however, that any serious trouble would result from this issue.

The controversy which was threatened over efforts to secure Germany's admission seems to have been averted. France threatened to withdraw her delegation if an effort were made to take Germany into the league, but advices from Berlin quote the Ger-man foreign office as saying that Germany does not seek admission at this time. On the other hand, both Austria and Bulgaria, two former allies of Germany, may be admitted. The Japanese delegates have been active here for a week and unless persuaded otherwise by powerful friends, probably will press their resolution for racial equality. Paul Hymans, Belgian foreign min-ister, was chosen president of the session. The vote was: M. Hymans.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—Co-operation by and f league of nations is vital to the suc-cess of that organization, declared Aristides Aguero, head of the Cuban delegation to the meeting of the as-sembly at Geneva, to the editor of the Eclair yesterday. "I think," he continued, "that all that can be done at Geneva will be of a more or less provisional character. I am partisan of a court of international justice, but nations, great as well as small, must be represented in it. Think how precarious is the league's situation, owing to the fact that it does not count the suggestion of error overruled.

WHAT THE GREAT MINDS OF ALL TIME SAY ABOUT MUSIC.

MY mother always sang while she was nursing me and I can faithfully say I took my first music lessons unconsciously.

-CHARLES GOUNOD

THROUGH music the child Enters into a world of beauty Expresses his inmost self Tastes the joy of creating Widens his sympathies Develops his mind Soothes and refines his spirit Adds grace to his body. -NATIONAL CHILD WELFARE MUSIC teaches most exquisitely the art of development.

ASSOCIATION

-DISRAELI

IF young men had music and pictures to interest them, to engage them and satisfy many of their impulses and to enliven their days, they would not go to the low pleasures of the streets; they would have an alternative and would be too fastidious to do so.

-BERNARD SHAW

ALL Children Need Music

HE child who absorbs music in his infancy has been provided with an inexhaustible source of pleasure all through life. It can never be taken from him. Misfortune but increases his need for its comfort. Prosperity requires music for its fullest enjoyment.

There is no period in life when the love of music is not helpful. The National Child Welfare Association (which has no interest whatever in music and whose sole purpose is the elevation of the race) is so impressed with the value of music to the child in developing the highest type of men and women that it has published, in booklet form, a special message to parents urging a musical atmosphere in the home. You naturally are interested in the best development of your own child.

Is your child absorbing music while his disposition and character are in the building and his tastes are in the formative stage? Have you provided him with this important means of wholesome enjoyment in later life? And yourself? Are you bringing all the music you need into your own

Fill your home with music and you will fill your life with gladness. There will be a zip to your work and a sparkle to your playtime.
